“WINE IS FUN”

- Dirty Laundry Vineyard

We understand what Robert Mondavi intended when he coined the expression
“Wine is Life”.

Here at Dirty Laundry, in the sun drenched hills of the Okanagan Valley one's whole being is captivated by the beauty and serenity of the vineyard, the ebb and flow of the industry in which the fertility of the terroir merges with the talent and inspiration of the orchardist and winemaker to produce the finest of Valley wines.

To Robert Mondavi wine was family, friendship, romance, science, industry and ultimately his lifelong career. To Dirty Laundry, wine has one further dimension.

“Wine is fun!”

Humor is the spice of life so not only are we here to tantalize your palette but to tickle your funny bone. The little known Summerland story of a 19th century Chinese Laundromat which fronted for a brothel has provided the perfect back drop to arouse your sense of humor while your remaining senses are stimulated by your surroundings and the product of our vineyard.

During the gold rush era our town's laundry seemed innocent enough.
Little did anyone know of the naughty business that went on behind the scenes.
Perhaps it is best that we keep this little known part of Summerland history, “hush hush”.
